

BOOKMINDERS' EMPLOYEE SURVEYS RESULTS IN CULTURE BADGES VERIFIED BY TOP WORKPLACES

Posted on May 17, 2022

In March of this year, Energage surveyed our staff as part of their Top Workplaces program evaluation. This survey asked staff to rate the company and their role across a variety of cultural dimensions. While we'll have to wait until the autumn awards ceremony to learn if Bookminders has been named a Top Workplaces honoree - we already have some amazing news from Energage. Our employees' feedback has resulted in the award of every Culture Badge earned through the Top Workplaces survey!

Each badge is achieved after a company scores in the top 25% of organizations in their benchmark that have been surveyed in the past 12 months. In addition to receiving all 12 badges in the first year Bookminders participated in the Top Workplaces evaluation, we have received the additional distinction of placing in the top 5% for all badges. Our management team is thankful that the supportive, transparent, and positive work environment we strive to maintain is authentically experienced by our staff! As Bookminders continue to grow, flexibility, work-life balance, and supported autonomy will continue to be the center of our remote-first culture.
